QUALITY, CUSTOMIZED CARE

Home Care is a general term that includes both medical and non-medical care. Home Health provides skilled Nursing, Physical Therapy, and Speech Therapy rehabilitative care. With these services, Occupational Therapy, Medical Social Work, and Aides can be provided. Medicare home health benefits require that the patient need skilled medical care and be homebound, meaning that leaving the home is taxing, infrequent, and of short duration to receive medical care, or to attend religious services or adult day programs.

Hospice is comfort care for life-limiting conditions. Hospice surrounds the patient and family with compassionate support. The patient is not required to be homebound. A doctor's order is required for home health and hospice.

Personal Care refers to non-medical services, such as aide assistance with bathing, dressing, meal preparation, etc.
